Large CEDS, KC floats best

Missouri float entered Episcopal Day School display of the state of Louisiana life. Lights of Columbus captured top awards. National Krewe of Chiade here Carnival attracted a bumper downtown Bay St.

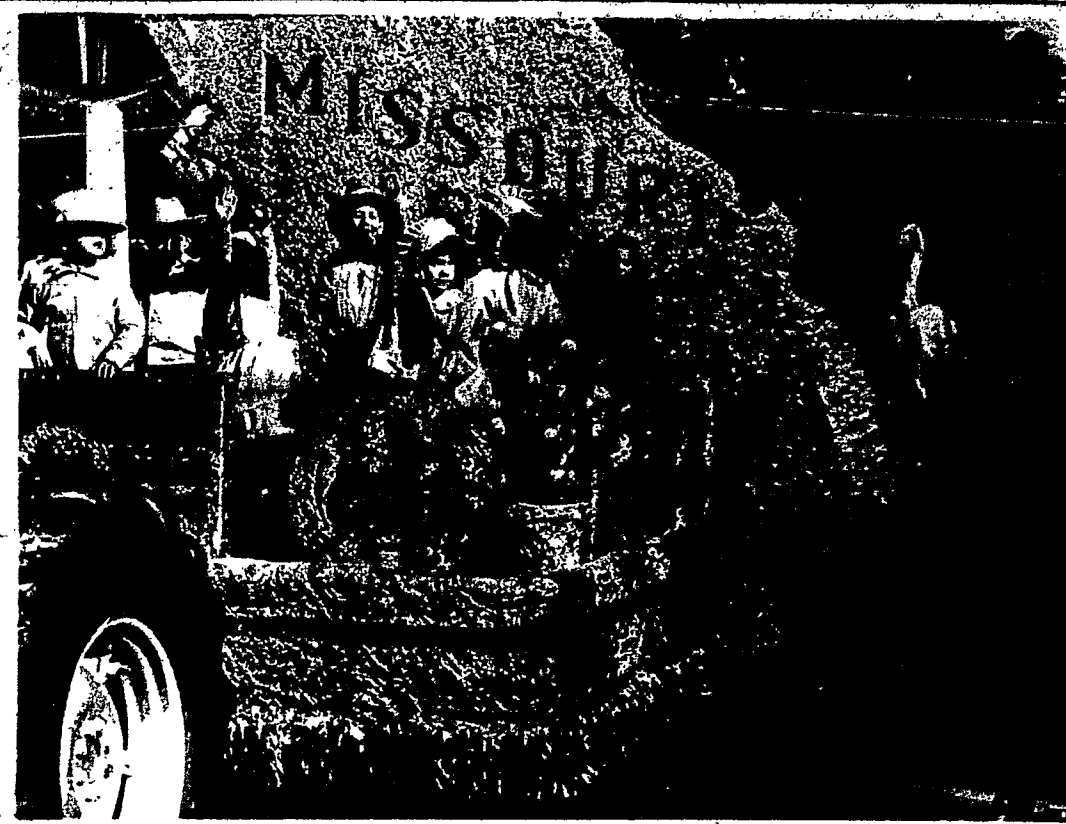

One of the largest record with first by both the soon town School and new parish school ended in keeping with states of the Nation. The afternoon was in honor of the Pearl College band and famous String of Stan Wilkinson, king of the krewe, received the customary key to the city from Mayor John A. Scaffide as his float halted in front of the Courthouse and he toasted queen Carol Sanford who viewed the parade from the steps with members of her court. A chilling wind on the sunny day forced the maids to wear wraps and their multi-hued gowns were not fully displayed to the public until the ball afterwards in Bay High School gymnasium. David Compresta presided as captain of the krewe.

The Christ School float was judged first in the school division while Waveland School, first last year, took second with its interpretation of Alaska. Third went to North Bay's sixth (Cont. on Page 8.)

Eye MTO rd. woes

Some progress in the stalemated MTO road situation was made Monday when Walter Mussell, chief of the real estate division, Corps of Engineers, Mobile, agreed to the board of supervisors' request that federal funds be obtained to improve county roads outside the test site and buffer zone, where displaced persons have relocated. Supervisors agreeing to abandon roads in the fee area. Cost to the government would be based on cost of roads built in the county during the past ten years.

Mussell emphasized, however, that final decision on the proposal must come from Washington and asked supervisors to prepare a letter which he would put in the "pipeline" and asked for 30 days to answer the proposition.

Monday's meeting, attended by four representatives of the Corps of Engineers and representatives from Pearl River County, was brought about when supervisors blocked roads in the MTO area Jan. 24 stating that heavy equipment used in construction at the test site had made them impassable. Supervisors then agreed to life the blockade temporarily after engineers promised to come up with something definite Monday.

Beat I supervisor H. G. Dean said he was just a "country boy" but was tired of "these Casey Stengel answers" after Mussell admitted he had no definite answer to supervisors' demand they be reimbursed for road damage caused by equipment used in MTO construction. Dean also noted that many MTO displaced residents had moved to his district and were demanding service roads equal to those they had left. He said he had already built some roads, Mussell answered he didn't think the government could make any agreement retroactive. Mussell said he didn't blame supervisors for feeling "frustrated and exasperated" and board members added they felt they had been given the "run-around", having been referred from one Corps official to another.

EDITOR'S NOTE - In the Feb. 28, 1963 issue, the Echo reported a meeting on the road situation between supervisors and J. G. Wardlaw and John Wilson of the Corps of Engineers.

Mussell's proposal amounted to a request that supervisors submit a letter and map with more detailed specifications of what kind of roads were to be built. Board president R. G. Hubbard countered that specifications would be the same as state aid constructed roads.

After supervisors said they

Hospital adopts new bed rate, pay schedule

Increases in room charges to support $611.95 in salary increases and adoption of a personnel merit-progress system was unanimously approved Tuesday night by Hancock General Hospital board of trustees. Rates for private rooms were upped from $14 to $15 and semi-private $10.50 to $12.50 effective March 15. New pay scales go into effect March 1.

Action on salary increases resulted from a three-page typewritten report presented by John D. Rutherford, Jr., chairman of a committee appointed by president Cornelius J. Ladner to study the employee situation here and in Gulfport Memorial Hospital.

Included in the committee's recommendations approved by the trustees were registered nurses starting salary raised from $290 to $300 with a $325 maximum; licensed practical nurses, raised to $200; practical nurses, $150 minimum, $175 maximum, and aides $130-145. Other raises were chiefly merit raises and the committee recommended that personnel be reviewed every six months and raises be granted where merited up to the limit fixed by the trustees.

A recommendation that laboratory technicians be given $30 a month to cover cost of returning to the hospital for emergency cases was deleted from the report before approval after T. T. Reboul explained the technicians had been employed by previous trustees on the basis of $1.25 for each call-back. The committee objected to payment of as many as eight or nine call-backs recorded for one technician during 24-hour periods. Ladner commenting he thought it a physical impossibility for a person

due tallest structure

ward $10 mil. jobs

$166 contract was awarded Wednesday for construction of the foundation of the tallest structure in Mississippi. It is the 140 foot static fire test stand of the 140 moon rocket at Test Operations, Bell and Co. of El Paso, Texas, and Peter Klewitz of Omaha, Neb., were job by the Corps of Engineers. This same job has been awarded to U. S. 90 adjacent, has three other contracts totaling over $13 million, while the test stand will stand 400 feet above County landscape, three test towers at MTO, the S-4C the largest rocket in the United States, this structure four weeks totaled just $1 million, while the called for bids on million worth of work. Construction Co. of Tenn., for a ward to build a second perimeter canal used to transport to the test stands. Contract for $3,501,146 went to Chaney and James Construction Co. of Richardson, Tex., for an RP-1 (hexosene) docket, marine terminal facilities and a booster storage building. Both jobs are to be completed in the spring of 1965.

Sabine Dredging and Construction Co., Inc., of Port Arthur, Tex., got a $447,528 contract for dredging the East Pearl River to provide a channel 13 feet deep and 150 feet wide from the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway at Rigolets to MTO.

Work will begin shortly on the job which also calls for deepening, widening and straightening the river channel where required from about a mile south of Gainesville for about 17 miles through Little Lake Pass, Little Lake and East Pass to Rigolets, and dredging a canal about .6 miles long from the harbor area to the southwest corner of the test site to the lock. It is to be completed in October.

A $77,772 award went to Carlross Well Supply Co. of Memphis, Tenn., for two water wells, about 1,500 feet deep to provide portable water for domestic consumption and fire protection in the test stand and support facilities areas. That work is to be finished by June. Bids are due at the District (Cont. on Page 6.)

Call bids on N. Bay annex

Trustees of the Bay St. Louis Municipal School District voted Monday night to advertise for bids for construction of six new classrooms at North Bay Elementary School. Date for opening the bids was set for March 6.

Superintendent Joe D. McCullough and Fred Wagner, architect, spent Friday in Jackson getting approval of the plans by the State Education Finance Commission, State Architect and State Health Officer.

The board unanimously gave formal support to the city's proposed sewerage, water and gas construction program and directed Robert L. Hamilton, board president, to notify commission council in writing of its action.

It also voted to write the executive president of the Mississippi Municipal Association, in opposition to proposed legislation, which would give the municipal governing body authority in setting millage to disregard the budget adopted by the school board.

The board recessed until 7:30 p.m. on Feb. 19, Feb. 26, and March 4 at which times the board hopes to interview architects before deciding on one to design the proposed new school. Architects who have already indicated interest in the job are John C. Saffling, Piquette, Proffer and Associates, Gulfport; O'Brien and Wagner, New Orleans; William R. Allen, Jr., Jackson, R. L. Mulvaney Associates, Jackson, and Pen-rick M. Allison Associates, New Orleans.

Martinolichs reign at St. Joseph ball

With a period of Mexican history of 100 years ago as the theme, Dr. and Mrs. Andrew K. Martinolich, Jr., reigned as king and queen of the 31st annual St. Joseph Carnival Club ball Friday night.

The story, carried out in decorations of the SJA gymnasium and the entertainment, depicted the gaudy and festivity during a brief saga in Mexican history when Napoleon, III, of France dispatched the young and daring Emperor Maximilian of Austria to rule the nation with his lovely Belgian wife, Empress Carlotta. Setting was Chapultepec, his castle.

The ball was dedicated to the memory of the late Leo W. Seal who was among the leading supporters of the event and had served as president of the sponsoring organization.

The queen, in a sheath gown of white silk tulle resplendent with iridescents, was presented by the captain of the ball, Dan M. Russell, Jr. Her trainbearers were Daidre Dear and Deena Haas. Preceding her entry was the presentation of the court, the maids wearing mantillas in gold, black and white in keeping with the theme, and of the 1963 monarchs, Robert Kemery and Mrs. E. Coney Weston.

Dukes and maids were Mr. and Mrs. James D. Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Fabian Buquol, Miss Ursula Favre with Russell Chapman, Capt. and Mrs. William C. Fortune, Mr. and Mrs. V. F. Frankiewicz, Mr. and Mrs. Powell Glass, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoagland, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kern, Jr., Mrs. Monroe Kimball with Charles Carter, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kohn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lauderdale, Dr. and Mrs. John B. Levens, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Viguerie.

Susan Ryan, guardsmen for the castle, announced the citizens who came to provide entertainment for the royal court. Dancing El Jarabe Tapatio were Gusty Maria Duron, Sil-

Biloxi takes 2nd of year from HNC

It was see-saw all the way but a pair of free throws with seconds to go proved to be Hancock North Central's undoing Monday night as the Biloxi Indians scalped the Hawks in their own gym 60-59. The teams are now 3-2 for the season and the Hawks are 27-4 over-all.

Bertie Lacher, Hawk's high scorer, fouled out with five minutes remaining and was sorely missed.

After the Hawks had taken the lead twice in the final quarter the Indians went ahead on two free throws by Edward Keller, clinched the game on a field goal and had control at the final buzzer.

The Hawks took a 19-16 Jones seeded 1st in circuit play, all-stars due here.

Both Valens C. Jones boys and girls were top-seeded in the annual South Mississippi Athletic Conference Tournament at a meeting Sunday at Wiggins.

Play will begin at 9 a.m. Feb. 16 at Poplarville, both Jones squads drawing byes in first round play. The girls will open at 1:30 p.m. against the winner of Lucedale-Wiggins and the boys will play the winner of Pass Christian-Poplarville at 3 p.m.

The Jones gym was selected for the annual North-South all-star game at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 23 and coach Willie Bradley was selected head coach for the South team.

Next Wednesday with reservations being accepted at HO7-4592.

MUTUAL

After the hectic hilarity of the past few days, life will undoubtedly settle down to normal until Easter anyway, which is perhaps just as well, at least judging by the appearance of some residents who looked something less than bright-eyed and bushy tailed Wednesday morning.

We're gratified to note that more and more people are taking pride in the appearance of the community, especially so with the garden club pilgrimage scheduled early next month. In addition to admiring the many lovely new homes, we're happy to see that so many older ones are being remodelled and if you'll just take a look around you'll be amazed at what results have been achieved with unusual paint combinations. There are, of course still too many "eye sores" but the majority of home owners take pride in their homes and lawns and I don't think we'll have to be ashamed when touring gardeners from all over the country arrive for the pilgrimage.

Martinolichs reign at SJA

Sort of skipping around, but back to Carnival, balls, etc. St. Joseph's annual affair was a glittering success and although many had an idea that either Carol or Andy Martinolich would be queen or king, no one was certain until they entered attired in regal robes, crowns and of course armed with the traditional sceptres. Everyone attending left raving about the decorations which carried out the theme of the brief but colorful reign of Emperor Maximilian and Empress Carlotta in Mexico. This theme also produced some spectacular entertainment including authentic Mexican dances by St. Joseph boarders. Naturally the men were handsome, if a bit uncomfortable, in full dress so we won't worry about further description of their attire but the ladies of the court outdid themselves this year. Jeanette Kimball was striking in her brilliant red formal; Pat Viguerie's pale aqua silk organza over silver brocade was stunning as was Joan Glass's amber gown. Libby Fortune chose a rich shade of purple, Janelle Kerr's blue dress featured enormous red roses accented with glimmer. Joyce Buegel wore gold brocade, almost-bride Marion Kohn's dark green brocade was touched with black accents, Elaine Bird wore brilliant green with black lace and matching gloves, Frances Frankiewicz chose blue as did Mary Hoagland, Irma Levens a bouffant gold, and the one "Miss" in the group, pretty Ursula Favre appeared in a dark green sheath.

Carol's mother, Leonie Cabell's dress was most becoming and Mrs. Martinolich wore a attractive red gown. Julia Loup, who was in charge of ladies of the court, was lovely in pale green.

The Bob Hamiltons entertained at "half-time", (the interim between the ball and king's party) and everyone there enjoyed Joe Marochino's new "toy", a color Polaroid camera with which, after a period of familiarizing himself with the gadget, he took really lovely pictures of each couple.

Andy was a genial host at the Yacht Club party and everyone had a wonderful time but we hear that Adele Parks enjoyed dancing the MOST, to revert to teen-age vernacular.

Garmen and Cliff Piazza and Delores and Norton Haas, Jr., were guests of Marie and Arnold Wolfe for the Mid-City ball, king's supper and parade in New Orleans over the weekend. Jimmy Lagasse was allowed to return to work Monday as his Dr. pronounced him almost as good as new following his recent operation. His one restriction being no driving to and from New Orleans daily for at least another week. Jimmy appreciated all cards and such when he was in the hospital but think he was most impressed by the card sent him by St. Clare's C.Y.O. members.

Sentenced for blood

We've all heard of hanging judges, but Nolan Ladner is the first we've known about who was literally "out for blood" last Thursday. His sentence to three minor offenders was one pint of blood to be given immediately to the blood bank at the drawing at the Legion home. The trio came through, although we're told that one of the harder looking boys all but fainted incidentally, we mean that the offense was minor, the culprits were not.

Welcome back Pat and Charlie Butler. Charlie has now retired from Uncle Sam's Navy and he and Pat are making their permanent home on Meadow Lane.

Katherine and Eddie Heath are our newest new car owners. They acquired their lovely white sedan just in time for Carnival.

On the recovery road

Hate to keep adding to the sick list, but some of our favorite people are under the weather or have been hospitalized recently. Tiny Lynn Ruhr (Dawn and Geesie's baby) is on the mend having had double pneumonia; Laurie, Leslie and Nancy Cox have been puny to say the least, for the past few days as has "Liz" Carr... all virus victims. Mary Stewart is recuperating from pneumonia at Hancock General as is C. F. (Mitch) Mitchell; Dick Dailey and Pete Chinsche have both been seriously ill, but are slowly improving, we're happy to report.

We were a bit worried when told that one of the most conscientious dieters has purchased, of all things, 40 pounds of chocolate candy. However, Harold Carver hastened to explain he intended to use the goodies for Carnival throws. One of Waveland's most debonair bachelors hasn't been seen around too frequently—he's too busy watching his honey bees... and we do mean the insect type honey bees. Billy Soldine has hives strategically located all over town... the only mean lot is parked in Ruth and Brud Favre's yard... incidentally Ruth is another in line for get well wishes—she's incapacitated due to a fractured foot... the injury suffered when she took a spill while cleaning a closet.

Soy—excuse me, Roy Saux has now joined the ranks of local merchants. Roy added and abetted by pretty wife, Kate, is the new owner, manager, and operator of Roy Saux Furniture and Appliances at 111 Second St.

Party supreme

Despite the fact that the traditional good luck Chinese New Year fish showed a tendency to disintegrate while being hung, Caroline and Bill Argus' Calypso party was still THE PARTY OF PARTIES... Caroline's Hawaiian dress in a real wild print, black wig and fantastic eyelashes set the stage and pretty Ann Morlan reigned royally as proud mamma Muriel looked on... Kirk Kirkhoff of New Orleans was her king. This ceremony was a bit more brief than usual and the parade only got as far as encircling the oak tree—a shame as there were some really spectacular outfits. Pat and Joe Viguerie were sensational as royalty for hire... lots of European countries are short a ruler or so... but it was a bit confusing... no one was sure whether Pat was male or female and she's still trying to figure out if she should be insulted or not.

Our apologies to Myron Smith, Jr. and bride... he was discharged from the Army Medical Corps as a captain, not

Bramble finishes NCO preparatory

Airman First Class Stephen P. Bramble of Seattle, Wash., has graduated from the Non-commissioned Officer Preparatory School at Ramey AFB in Puerto Rico.

Airman Bramble, a military procurement specialist, is assigned to the 72nd Combat Support Group here. He was trained in management, leadership, security, human relations and other duties and responsibilities of Air Force noncommissioned officers.

The airman, a former student at Central Valley High School, Spokane, Wash., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bramble of Rt. 1, Bay St. Louis. His wife is the former Marie A. Sherburne of Seattle.

His picture in last week's paper was flattering due only to the fact that her face didn't show. Anyway, 'taint true! SIGHTS AND SOUNDS—LONG THE WAY—Bicycle riders so numerous Saturday one might have thought they were in Bermuda instead of the Bay: rusty breasted, chubby robins eating everything their bright yellow bills can find and the spring-like sound of their first chirps just as the sun begins to rise each morning.

Jackie, Boo and Little J'Don Noto can attest to the fact that Leptospirosis is more than just a word... they lost their little dog with the disease last Thursday... so we'll repeat the warning... if your dog hasn't had the shot... please don't waste any more time.

A New $15,500,000 Crop For Mississippi In 1964

That's what the member-owners of the Electric Power Association in Mississippi will spend for electric appliances, equipment and fixtures alone this year.

Through normal channels of trade, this $15,500,000 will turn over four times this year. This means more money in your pocket, whether you live in a rural area or in town.

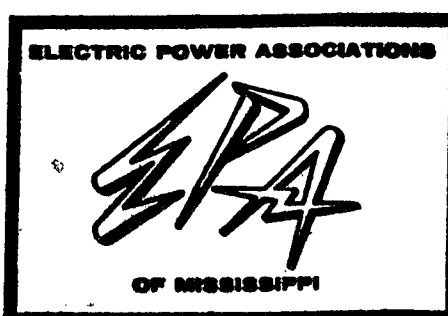

A new market? Not exactly. It began as far back as 28 years ago with the formation of the first Electric Power Association in Mississippi.

It is a market which would not exist, even today, in Mississippi without these Electric Power Associations. It exists because rural Mississippians, finding electricity was not available through any other source, formed these Associations. To do so, they borrowed money, which they are repaying with interest, while they sell themselves electricity. They proved rural electrification doesn't cost—it pays.

The result: An easier life and a tremendous boost to the economy of the entire state.

To almost a million Mississippians, rural electrification is the best crop they ever planted.

Facts and need

The Citizens Progress Committee is going to try to inform everyone in Bay St. Louis of all the facts surrounding the proposed sewerage, gas and water improvements for Bay St. Louis and the bond issue needed to finance these improvements.

Elsewhere on this page is printed the Fact Sheet on this matter prepared for the committee by Owen and White, project engineers. Undoubtedly speakers for the CPC will present the facts better and more completely than can be done by a fact sheet, but in case you may miss hearing one of their presentations, we suggest you read our printed version. Even if later on you should hear a talk on the subject a knowledge of the facts set forth here today will enable you to better ask questions to clear up any doubts.

On the other hand don't let a mass of facts obscure the essential point: Bay St. Louis needs a sewerage system and badly.

Wrong direction

Under the present law of Mississippi the trustees of municipal separate school districts adopt a budget, submit it to the city fathers and the latter must levy sufficient taxes to meet the budget so long as a rate of 25 mills will suffice. This is not true in the county system.

One of the proposals being pushed by the Mississippi Municipal Association, of which Mayor John A. Scaffide is president, would permit municipal governing authorities to disregard the school board's budget in setting millage. The idea has the merit that the city fathers are all elected whereas such is not the case of municipal school boards (in the Bay St. Louis system only Trustee J. W. Watts, Jr., who represents Waveland and the "outside" area, is elected). That is where the merit ends and even it is diluted since the non-elected trustees are appointed by the same elected officials.

On the other hand such a change, by making employment in the school system one step closer to the politicians, makes politics in the school system more likely. Furthermore, school trustees, whose time is devoted to considering the needs of the school system, are much more likely to know what funds are needed to properly run our schools than are the mayors, aldermen, commissioners et al who must look out for the operation of the rest of the city also.

In the past State Representative Walter James Phillips has frequently told the county school board, for which he is attorney, that he thinks the state law should be changed to give county school boards, all elected, the same authority in this financing matter that municipal school boards now have.

We hope Mr. Phillips continues to hold this view and that he will work not only to give the county school boards this authority municipal ones now have but to continue it for municipal trustees.

Among the loudest proponents of federally enforced integration have been church leaders, even some Mississippi ones. So the churches get themselves and their schools exempted from the laws application. And if that hypocrisy wasn't enough to turn a strong man's stomach, a Republican sponsored amendment was tacked on to the civil rights bill permitting any employer to discriminate so long as it's against an atheist. Ooops.

At Hancock General

January patients exceed capacity

Average patient load at Hancock General Hospital increased from 26 in December to 34.5 in January, the board of trustees learned Tuesday night. The hospital is rated at 32-bed capacity.

Administrator Thomas O. Logue told trustees he had been notified by Foster Fowler, executive secretary of the Mississippi Commission on Hospital Care that Hancock General had qualified for the $272,000 federal grant for expansion.

The board of supervisors last month sold a $175,000 bond issue to raise local matching funds and necessary forms were filed with Jackson, Atlanta and Washington to meet the Jan. 31 deadline. Architects Landry and Mandis officesburg are completing plans and specifications and the county board of supervisors Monday approved payment of $2,213 to complete final steps before advertisement for bids can be issued. Trustee T. P. Rebol questioned the necessity of an expenditure of $500-$364 for a plane and $136 hotel expenses for president Cornelius J. Lader and chief of staff Dr. Wesley McFarland saying he thought the matter was cut and dried, the only thing remaining was delivery of papers and money before the Jan. 31 deadline. Lader replied matters were smoothed and expedited by the presence of the president and chief of staff; that he made the trip in the interest of the county and would have done so at his own expense if necessary.

Trustee Joe K. Duckworth suggested that such expenses be itemized in the minutes beforehand and after a lengthy discussion called for a vote of confidence in the administration and medical staff which was given unanimous approval. An emergency expenditure of $305.82 for linen was approved and Logue was instructed to investigate cost of a linen service that would supply the hospital on a clean and rental basis.

C. J. Mauffray, Duckworth and Clifford Saucier were appointed by Lader to a committee to meet with the medical staff as required by hospital rules.

A grant of $100 to help defray expenses for Mrs. Samantha Kellar to attend a four-week housekeeping course at University of Mississippi was approved.

Attorney Sam L. Favre, Jr., was directed to prepare a resolution approving the city's $3 million revenue bond issue to finance the proposed sewerage system and improved water and gas system.

Bay High juniors in circuit finals

Both Bay High boys' and girls' squads reached the finals of the first annual Gulf Coast Conference Junior High basketball tournament Saturday night in McNeill's gymnasium but the girls lost to Harrison Central 35-29 and the boys to Long Beach 44-22.

Mike Nalcise was high for the little Tigers with eight points and P. Miller racked up 23 for the distaffs.

Walter A. Jasper

Walter A. Jasper, retired inspector for the U.S. Customs, died suddenly at 1:15 p.m. Feb. 9 at Hancock General Hospital. He was a member of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church and Holy Name Society.

He is survived by one son Lawrence Jasper, of California; one brother, W. E. Jasper of Mexico City, Mex., and two sisters, Mrs. E. B. Herdon and Miss Mary Ann Jasper, both of Shreveport, La.

Services were Tuesday from Riemann's F a h e y-Whitfield Funeral Home with religious services from Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church. Interment was in Palestine Cemetery, Piquette.

Miss Thompson

Miss Eleanor Pamela Thompson, 85, sister of Horace A. Thompson of Waveland, died Monday at Charity Hospital, New Orleans.

A native of New Orleans she was the grand daughter of a Confederate general and for 69 years was well known for the Confederate souvenirs she made.

Funeral services were Wednesday at St. George's Episcopal Church with interment in Metairie Cemetery.

Jones in tie for lead

Valena C. Jones boys and girls clinched a tie for the conference visitation championship scoring a double victory over Randolph High of Pass Christian Monday night in the Jones gym. Both teams are leading the South Mississippi Athletic Conference with 8-1 records and wins over Wiggins last night would clinch the title. The boys are 17-1 over-all and the girls 20-4.

The boys beat Pass Christian Monday 85-74. Sullivan Bell setting the pace with 28 points followed by J. W. Fields with 16, Harold Price 14, Robert Whavers 12 and Cleveland Williams 10.

Friday the lads whopped Oak Grove of Lucedale there 83-46 with Bell racking up 27 points, Price 21, Whavers 11 and Fields 10.

Last Wednesday at Gulfport the Jones boys lost 43-50 after getting off to a bad start. Price was high with 15, Bell got 13 and Fields 6.

The girls celebrated the return of stars Gladys Mullins and Annie Haynes, who were benched with injuries, beating Pass Christian Monday 49-30. Coach Willie Bradley credited Eartha Durey with playing her best game of the year, scoring 21 points and setting up many others by feeding the ball to teammates. Marilyn Price got 9 and Annie Haynes 6 while Young and Carolyn Robinson won with smothering the enemy.

Friday the girls beat Lucedale 41-20 with Durey going 24 points and Price 13. Last Wednesday the lasses were defeated by 32nd Avenue High at Gulfport 41-30.

Waveland studies sewerage program
Mayor Garfield Lader of Waveland confirmed last week that the town's council was looking into the question of constructing a municipal sewerage system. Last week he conferred with D. M. Dornblatt, New Orleans engineer, concerning preparation of plans and Dornblatt is scheduled to meet with the Mayor and Board of Aldermen Monday to consider the question further.

According to Lader present indications are that the town will seek financial help from the federal government.

Chamber hosts newcomer fete

Mrs. Richard Ferguson, newcomer to the county from Redmond, Wash., reigned as queen for the coffee sponsored by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce last Thursday at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

Mrs. Wayne Ducomb, chairman for the chamber's newcomer greeting committee, was in charge of the social designed to acquaint the group with facilities of Hancock County from recreation to business activities.

Local merchants welcomed the new arrivals with a host of gifts and certificates for service. Goodies ranged from clothing and jewelry to theater passes, dimers, paint, piggy banks and a set of screw drivers. Refreshments were supplied by Bobby Anne and Waveland Bakeries and the Yacht Club while Merchants Insurance Agency assisted the club with decorations.

Businesses providing gifts were Stuckey's, Waveland Drug, Coast Electric, Thomas Refrigeration, Brewster's Jewelry, Horne's, Hancock Bank, Beauty Bar, Himel's, Dave McDonald, Hancock Insurance Agency, Frost Top, Porter's, Plaza's, Anco, Tower Lanes, Gulf Chevrolet, Delph, Beach Drug, P and D Service, Scaddi Wheel, Star Theater, di-Benedetto, Bill's Dollar Store, Casanova, Maudray, Manieri, W. A. McDonald, Sunshine's, Merchants Bank, Arceneaux, Piazza Barber Shop, Mary Carter, Western Auto, Globe Laundry, Coastal Savings and Loan, Hoagland Ford, J. C.'s Barber Shop, Magnolia State, Kern's, Vickie's, Jitney Jungle, deMontuzin Drug, Ramsey's, Inn by the Sea, Lorraine Florist, Merchants Insurance, Joyce's, Peoples Federal, Monty Carver, Mitchell Realty, Messinger and Chapman Business Service.

Five fined on game charges, Holland held

Five violators of fish and game laws were convicted before Justice of Peace Nolan Lader during the last week. Fined $25 each and costs for fishing with trammel nets were Ernest Poillon, painter, and Edward Santinelli, fish market operator, who were nabbed Monday night in the Jordan River where they put their net around an area in which Warden Pat Toomy and Chester King were laying in wait.

Ordered to give a pint of blood each to the bloodmobile last Thursday for illegal hunting of rabbits were Michael Peterson, Jim Mayfield, Jr., and John Carver.

Justice Lader last week bound over to the grand jury without bond Lazaro Holland, Jr., on a kidnapping charge resulting from his eight-block ride holding at gunpoint Bay St. Louis chief of police Lathan Garriga. Lesser charges against him are pending.

Exceeding $70,000 a year and an average decline in passenger use of over 40 per cent in the last five years.

March ruling seen on commuter case

An Interstate Commerce Commission decision in March on continuance of the commuter. Louisville and Nashville trains 9 and 12, was forecast by ICC Examiner William J. Kane at the conclusion Friday of a 21/2 day hearing in New Orleans on the question before him. He also directed that briefs in the case be filed with the ICC by March 9.

At Friday's abbreviated session Walter W. Rausch, who organized much of the opposition to the L and N's move to discontinue the trains, testified that the railroad's 1963 earnings of $11.59 per share were the highest in this country's 45 major railroads.

Also on Friday Marcus Love of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board cautioned that discontinuance of the service would work against industrial development of the state's golf coast.

Love's testimony complemented that of several witnesses Thursday who pointed out the increasing inability of U.S. 90, which roughly parallels the commuter's route, to safely handle traffic between the Mississippi coast and New Orleans.

Arthur M. White, traffic control and safety engineer for the Mississippi Highway Department, had told the examiner that highway had an accident rate greater than comparable routes, and Kennedy fact," he said, "lately I've been working night and day, seven days a week." (EDITOR'S NOTE - Dean apparently was referring to an editorial in last week's issue referring to the job of supervisors as "part time work.")

This lovely home on Highland Drive, Hillcrest Subdivision, Bay St. Louis, was recently sold to Mr. and Mrs. John K. McKenna through the office of JOHN McDONALD, Realtor and Builder.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN FREDERICK SEARLES

Searles-Necaise vows said at White Cypress

White Cypress Catholic Church was the scene for the wedding at 2 p.m., Saturday of Miss Donna Fay Necaise, daughter of Mrs. Robert Bruce Necaise and the late Mr. Necaise of Rt. 1, Pass Christian, and John Frederick Searles, foster son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Cox of Pass Christian.

Rev. Kenneth Brown officiated at the double ring ceremony before the altar lighted by candles and decorated with arrangements of white gladioli against a background of greenery.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Donald Ray Necaise.

Miss Flora Mae Shiyou of Rt. 1, Pass Christian, was maid of honor while Miss Mary Shaw of Rt. 1, Saucier, was bridesmaid.

Grifton Shiyou of Rt. 1, Pass Christian, was best man and Elliot Necaise of Bay St. Louis was groomsmen.

Vases of white gladioli and greenery decorated White Cypress Youth Center where the wedding reception followed. After a Florida honeymoon the couple will be at home at 199 LaRosa Rd., Long Beach.

Mrs. Searles is a legal secretary in Gulfport while the groom is employed at Pass Christian Industries.

Marriage Licenses

Applications of local interest for marriage licenses issued during the last week by Circuit Clerk Lamar Otis were as follows:

Edgar Maynard Ladner and Virginia Mary Johnson, both of Bay St. Louis; Carl L. McQueen and Ruby Anita Powe, both of Pearl River, La.; Vardaman Dedeaux, Rt. 2, Perkinson, and Bessie Malpass Walker, Rt. 1, Gulfport; George V. Holliman, Rt. 1, Gulfport, and Mrs. Inez Etta Ralmisano Ladner, Rt. 1, Bay St. Louis.

Teen Times

Carnival with all its gaiety has come and gone once more and only memories of balls, king cake parties and colorful parades remain. A few fought the crowds in the Crescent City to watch Rex and Momo to their suit, but the majority remained here to view the Court of Chicapoula and watched King Stan Wilkerson toast his pretty queen, Carol Sanford in the usual ceremony in from the courthouse. Krewe Captain David Compretta entertained members of the court at a party at his home following the ball in the Bay High gymnasium.

St. Joseph and Stanislaus students enjoyed Mardi Gras vacations as school closed at noon Friday and classes resume today. This holiday was, of course to allow borders to return home. Other local schools had Tuesday off, and woe be to those who didn't show up for classes bright and early Wednesday morning.

Lots of teen-age activity in Waveland. Applications for joining the Boy Scouts are still being taken. Any boy interested in joining can secure a form from Wesley Dorn at Waveland Drug Store or by calling Joe Griffin at 467-7132.

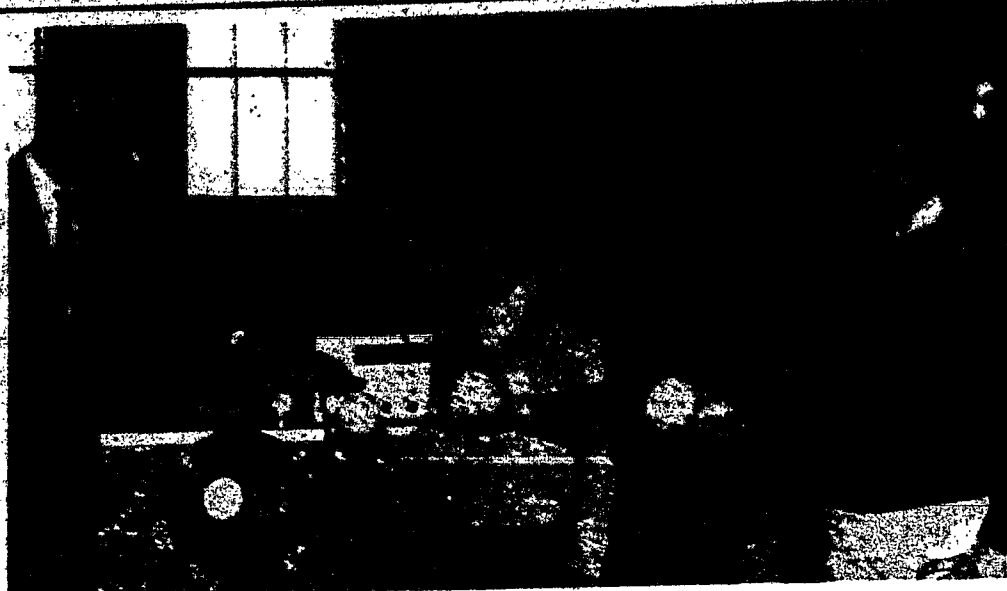

The Catholic Youth group is now planning both girls' and boys' baseball teams to play on their own field just behind the new school. One of their projects is an all day tournament complete with food, drinks, etc. Any boy or girl in the community may try out for the teams, regardless of religion.

Glad to hear that Rabbit Beasley found the glasses he lost last Saturday.

Marye Hoagland, who spent last weekend in her former home town, Baton Rouge, doubly enjoyed Carnival as it coincided with the date of her 16th birthday. Belated happy birthday greetings to Marye, who incidentally is one of our better assistant reporters.

Add Ina Usher and Robert (Bunny) Dickey to the ever growing list of those going steady. Cheryl Lader and Carl Fricke are also a steady duo.

ATOMIC LECTURE - Kenneth E. Flinn, left, of Oak Ridge, Tenn., Institute of Nuclear Studies, explains to St. Stanislaus College students Ray Chmiche, Pat McGinity and Vincent Caevras some principles of atomic energy during recent lecture under auspices of U. may give Teen Time news to Jeanne Rutherford who faithfully delivers all messages to us in neatly written order. Dottie Estapa has really been working her fingers to the bone. Dottie and other Student Prints staffers have the upcoming issue almost ready to go to press. The pictures of all campus queens will be displayed in this issue.

Newly elected CYO officers are Shorty Karl, president; Tommy Benigno, vice president; Janella Kingstun, secretary, and Ross Maurigl, treasurer.

Competition for the queen of hearts crown is apparently hot and heavy—Yvonne Schwartz is handling her campaign in a very business like manner, she's making posters as part of her campaign.

Ellen Western and Cathie Crider spent Sunday in Hattiesburg visiting sisters Carol and Paula at the University of Southern Mississippi.

Roy (Buddy) Sax has transferred from Southern to LSU in New Orleans. . . and this reminds us to make a correction. . . his brother Bobby recently had a tonsilectomy, not an appendectomy as we somewhat erroneously reported.

Billy Bradford's six week-end guests, all pre-med students at Loyola, did their good deeds last Thursday by helping the Waveland Volunteer Fire Department extinguish a large brush fire.

Cathy La Nasa entertained four Loyola classmates at the beach home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Philip La Nasa, last Saturday. The group enjoyed a ride on Dr. La Nasa's boat before returning to New Orleans.

Dale Russell has quite a way with flowers. Her Mardi Gras arrangement won a silver spoon and the tri-color award at the Slidell camellia show Sunday. Here's an accurate list of the Bay High students who appeared on tv last week: Piji White, Elaine Miller, Barbara Noonan, Dick Watts, Billy Thomas, Dickie Lader and Johnny Person. We hear that Holly Ruehl had a wonderful time at Camp Bratton-Green as the local House of Young Episcopal Churchmen representative on Jan. 31. Must have had quite a crowd as one meeting was held in the swimming pool, fortunately it was empty!

Mary Shatuck is one of our newest Teen Timers—Mary was 13 on Tuesday, Carnival day and celebrated the occasion by entertaining a group of friends at a Mardi Gras party, complete with costumes at her home Monday night.

Thirty young CYO members attended a dance in Ocean Springs last Saturday night and enjoyed dancing to music by Sugar Boy and the Cane Cutters. Mesdames T. F. Monti and Charles Benigno chaperoned the local boys and girls.

Pretty Margaret Pulizzano is wearing a lovely diamond on THE finger. . . Terry Favre is the donor, of course.

Laurie Kiefer is now a student at Ole Miss having enrolled last week.

More 'new' Teen Timers—Johnny, (15), Wanda Faye (15) and Judy Lynn Parker (14) daughters of Pfc. and Mrs. Jeffrey Schultz will be making their home on Austin Lane for the next year while their father is on a tour of duty in Korea.

Kay Monasco was feted at a surprise party on the occasion of her 15th birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Heverling on Friday, Feb. 7. Green and white were colors used in the decorating scheme. Among those enjoying punch, cake, chips and dips were the honoree's twin sister, Faye, Piji White, Dale Russell, Piji Perniciaro, James Tanter, Danny Kranker, Albert Von Antz, Barry Lewis, Johnny Parker and Dottie Wood.

Senior Girl Scouts attended a banquet at the Martham Hotel in Gulfport on Monday, Feb. 2. This group enjoyed a Mardi Gras party at OLG parish hall last Thursday night, Feb. 6. Pretty Cindy Carver is the latest to receive an engagement ring. Her fiancé is William Charles Lumpkin of Poplarville. No date has been set for the wedding as yet.

Belated birthday greetings go to Sheryl Moran who was sweet 16 on Tuesday, Feb. 4, and happy birthday today to James Fayard who is 20.

Dottie Wood and Alexis Romanoff are the latest to acquire driver's licenses. Alexis is also in line for get well wishes having broken his collarbone playing football last Monday.

New members of BayHigh's honor society were formally initiated on Jan. 31. Senior girls belonging to the chorus received their pins recently. Four year pins went to Nina Strong, Irene Pierce and Chris Barkley; Mary Ann Boyd's was for two years and Diane Presnell's for one.

Don't know the name of Sarah McFarland's latest admirer, but he's a student at St. Stanislaus and his initials are R.P.

Georgia Necaise, Jo Kay West, Linda Necaise and other Bay High freshmen are patiently awaiting the return of Annette Vaughn.

A very happy birthday with goes to Pat Murphy, Jr., who'll be 15 on Saturday, Feb. 16.

Girl Scouting

By JULIE DELPH

Neighborhood meeting was Feb. 5, at the Methodist Fellowship Hall. Mrs. Jess Gaudet, the neighborhood chairman, was in charge. Mrs. Paul Fassnacht, Cookie chairman, gave out information about the sale which starts on Saturday, Feb. 15. Cookie proceeds will go toward troop activities and development of our new camp site.

Plans were made for an International Pot Luck Dinner to be held at Our Lady of the Gulf cafeteria on March 12 in celebration of the Girl Scout Birthday. It will be a father and daughter affair.

Mrs. Julius Baum and Mrs. Joseph Griffin gave a brief talk on the council meeting in Lucedale on Jan. 28. Next neighborhood meeting will be Feb. 26.

Annual Girl Scout dinner took place at the Maritman Hotel, Feb. 3. Those attending were Mrs. Jess Gaudet, Mrs. James Clark, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. C. McDonald, Jr., Mrs. Robert Castlin, Mrs. Marion Beall and Mrs. Theodore Stechmann. Girls from Senior Troop No. 1 were Julie Delph, Susan Clark, Terry Gaudet, Ann Morland, Martha Lynch, Mary Lagarde, Fahey diBenedetto, Valda Pittsairn and Billie Gwin.

The invocation was given by Rev. John Ash of Long Beach. Mrs. McDonald senior gave the welcome and the guest speaker was Mrs. C. Y. Wier.

Heart fund volunteers are listed

Volunteers named so far to assist with the 1964 Heart Fund campaign in Hancock County this month have been announced by Mrs. Elus Depreo, drive chairman.

They are Mrs. Merlin Lader, Shirley Sewell, Henry Kathmann, Herbert Steffel, D. W. North and Viola Schwall and Donald Mauffray. Dr. J. B. Levens is council chairman with Russell Chapman as secretary.

Dianne Presnell, junior chairman, will be assisted by Melva Luke, Dixie Ashman, Carol Smith, Susan Pachen, Donna Lynn Johnston, George Garcia, Lewis Kémp, Chris Barkley and Bobby Gavagnie.

Hogland named county chairman for auto dealers

Fred G. Hogland, local Ford dealer, has been appointed Hancock County chairman for the Mississippi Automobile Dealers Assn., according to Robert L. Hoopes, Biloxi, director of the franchise automobile dealer group.

Hogland has been in the new car and truck business for 19 years.

He served four years on the vestry of St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Cleveland, Ohio, and has recently been elected to the vestry of Christ Episcopal Church in Bay St. Louis.

As county chairman for the Mississippi Automobile Dealers Association, he will be in charge of all membership activities and projects of the auto dealer group in Hancock County.

JOINS GEOGRAPHIC

Berry L. Reece, Jr., whose parents reside in Pass Christian Isles, has been named an editor-writer with National Geographic Society's book department in Washington, D. C. He formerly was with United Press International in Jackson, then a Dayton, O., publishing firm. He has a law degree from Notre Dame University.
